

R & F Development, Inc.

A Signature of Distinction, Excellence and Integrity.

R & F Development, Inc., a residential and commercial development company, was founded by George and Steve Reilly and John Forcum in 1984. Today Steve Reilly is president of the Greenfield-based company. Over the years the company has developed several communities in Hancock County ranging from luxury to low-maintenance to affordable.

The following are communities that currently have lots available. Greyhawk Woods in Southern Hancock County is a custom home community with homes ranging from $300,000 to $600,000 and lots one-acre or larger. Meadow Lake Estates is a neighborhood of Country-style homes. It features a pond, Gazebo, heated pool and basketball and tennis courts. Meadow Lake Village, a restrictive covenant community, is open to the builder of your choice. It features a seven-acre park with heated pool, basketball and tennis courts and playground. Windhaven, also open to the builder of your choice, is an affordable home community with homes starting at $190,000. It features a seven-acre park, heated swimming pool, basketball and tennis courts, playground and shelter house. Section Two of Summerhaven is a low-maintenance, cottage home neighborhood that is open to the builder of your choice. The Overlook is a semi-gated, restrictive covenant neighborhood with custom homes ranging from $399,000 to more than $600,000. Lots begin at $50,000 and walkout basement lots and pond lots are available. The Overlook is open to the builder of your choice.

R & F Development, Inc. goes the extra mile from the planning stage to the closing, to ensure your homesite is top of the line and right for you.

Word count: 257