

2005 Builder of the Year

The Builder of the Year Award is given to the builder who has contributed the most towards the efforts of the Hancock County Builders Council in representing the construction industry in and around Hancock County.

The recipient of this award for 2005 is Dan Mize. Dan has been involved with the Builders Association for over a decade. He's a lifelong Hancock County resident and is a vital part of our growth.

He gives of his time and money to many organizations including the Hancock County Hope House, The Boys and Girls Club, and many other not-for-profit organizations in our community.

Dan is an Officer of the Board of Directors and co-chair of our membership committee. He is owner of Premier Homes and also owns a land development company.

2005 Associate of the Year

The Associate of the Year Award is given to the associate who has contributed the most towards the efforts of the Hancock County Builders Council in representing the construction industry in and around Hancock County

The recipient of this award for 2005 is Jim Greig. Jim has been involved with the Builders Association for just a few short years but has made a tremendous impact.

While dedicating much time to our local council, he is also involved in several other community organizations including the Rotary, Greenfield Chamber of Commerce and the Riley Festival. Jim is also an affiliate member of the Board of Realtors.

Jim is an Officer of the Board of Directors, and chairs 3 of our 4 Council events. He is Assistant VP and Branch Manager of Union Savings and Loan.

Outstanding Service Appreciation Award

This award was presented by President Dale Langhans to Jerry Wasson, of Vectren Energy Delivery.

Over the years, Jerry has been very involved in our council in many ways, including being a Board of Director member and past President. Jerry has also been recognized as a past Associate of the Year.

We sincerely appreciate all that Jerry has given to our council and our community. We are fortunate that Jerry has been such a vital part of the Hancock County Builders Council for so many years.

Best wishes to Jerry in his retirement years!
